

Introductory Lessons

All new clients begin with an introductory lesson to determine whether our program is the right fit. Each introductory lesson is a 30-min private designed to give you a feel for our program and teaching style, and for us to assess your riding ability to place you with an appropriate instructor and/or group. Intro lessons are $70 and must be paid at the time of booking. If you choose to continue with lessons after your introductory lesson, you may join the current session, prorated.

Based on your introductory lesson, riders will be placed with an instructor best suited to help with progress at their present level. Beginners who require one on one attention for their own safety and progress will continue with 30-minute private lessons. Riders who demonstrate the ability to safely ride independently, and brush and tack on their own, may be offered a level appropriate hour-long group lesson slot. You are still welcome to continue with private lessons, if you'd prefer, depending on our current openings.

Session-Based Program Structure

Once you complete your introductory lesson, you are welcome to join our weekly schedule. Our program operates on a 6-week, session based, system. Each session has a set start date, with a new session starting every 6 weeks.

- Lessons are offered Tuesday-Sunday
- Each session is $425 for each lesson per week the rider takes (i.e. those riding once a week will pay $425/session, those riding twice will pay $850, and so on)
- Your lesson day and time is reserved for you, ongoing, once you enter the program. We ask that you let us know at least a week in advance if you do not plan to keep your spot for the following session so that we can offer the spot to someone on the waitlist
- Riders must commit to a set day and time weekly to be a part of the session program and be guaranteed a lesson spot
- Riders unable to commit to a weekly slot may request an ad hoc lesson by emailing us the week you'd want to add in. Lessons added ad hoc are $75 and must be paid at the time of booking. Availability is extremely limited, and dependent on cancellations of weekly clients.

Make Up Policy

- Lessons must be cancelled with at least 24 hours notice in order to be eligible for a make up. Lessons cancelled within 24 hours of the lesson time, and no shows, cannot be made up.
- Riders are allowed one make up lesson per weekly ride. For example, if you are scheduled for one lesson per week, you may make up one lesson per session. If you are scheduled for two lessons per week, you may make up two lessons per session.

- Make ups must be scheduled during the session in which the cancellation takes place. Make up lessons do not roll over into future sessions.

Payments

- Payments are due the week before the start of the session
- Introductory lessons must be paid at the time of booking
- We accept cash, check, Zelle and credit cards. Credit card payments will incur a 3% processing fee
- All payments are non-refundable
